

ROBBERY OF $71,900 FROM EXPRESS SAFE REMAINS UNSOLVED

Packages Taken From
"Locked" Safe Are Rifled by Thieves and Then Replaced.

"There is no clue to the perpetrators of the theft of $71,900 from the safe on the Seaboard Air Line train between Jersey City and Savannah, Ga., Sunday or Sunday night," said General Agent W. W. Pendleton of the Adams Express Company this morning. "The investigation is being made at Savannah under the direction of the Southern Express Company, which handled the shipment south of Washington. Pinkerton detectives are working on the case, and will report to the Southern Express Company and not to us."

Mr. Pendleton declared the shipment was sent from New York in charge of Messenger Schindell, who had four or five subordinates working with him in the car. Schindell was supposed to guard the shipment all the way to Savannah. "It was not known that the money was missing," said Mr. Pendleton, "until the train reached Savannah. The packages were in the safe all right, but when the safe was broken it was found that the money had been removed. There were two packages. One, from the Chase National Bank, contained the Savannah Bank and Trust Company, contained $50,000. The other package was from the Coal and Iron National Bank and contained $21,900. It was to have been distributed to several banks near Savannah. Other packages, containing smaller sums, were put off at Richmond, Va., and Hamlet, N. C. These were not molested. The safe in which the packages were carried was of the usual type used by express companies—fire-proof, burglar-proof and weighing several hundred pounds. No one except the messenger was supposed to know the combination."

PROBE STABBING MYSTERY.

Kiernan Tells Two Stories as to How He Was Cut.

Detectives of the Mulberry street station are trying to find out how Frank Kiernan, a truck driver, of No. 28 Mott street, was stabbed in the breast and dangerously wounded last night. Kiernan was found in bed this morning by his landlady, who couldn't make him get up for work. The bed and the floor were covered with blood and Kiernan was weak but conscious. At first he said he had stabbed himself, but later he said a strange Italian wounded him as he was ascending the stairs to his room at midnight last night. Dr. Sawyer hurried him to St. Vincent's Hospital, where his condition is said to be serious.

WENT DOWN EMBANKMENT.

Horse Drives While Driver and Wife Are Badly Hurt.

MONTAGUE, N. J., Sept. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. John Davey, who live near Mill rift, were severely injured last night. They were returning home when their horse took fright at a wheelbarrow loaded with a tent and other camping equipment, which was being pushed by William Knapp. The horse backed the wagon over a 40-foot embankment down to the Delaware River. Mr. and Mrs. Davey were thrown out. Mrs. Davey is suffering from three broken ribs and Mr. Davey has scalp wounds and bruises. The horse went into the river and was drowned.

Rolling for Bronx Voters.
ALBANY, Sept. 11.—Voters in the new County of the Bronx will be required to have resided there at least four months preceding the November election this year. Attorney-General Cardozo so holds, in an opinion to the State Superintendent of Elections.

Because of the great number of eye examinations made daily by our Oculists we are enabled to furnish you with accurate glasses for from $2 up, thus saving you the $5, $5 or $10 which would be charged you for the examination ALONE by a private practitioner. We manufacture the entire eyeglass, from screw to finished lens, in our own four factories, and every pair is guaranteed to give complete and lasting satisfaction—your money back if you wish it.

This is the Harris eyeglass service. It has built up the Largest Retail Optical Business in the country because it gives most for the money.

Dainty Lace and Net Blouses

The Daintiest Creations and the Biggest Values in Town; Tomorrow, at $1, $1.98 and $2.98

Dame Fashion has decreed that laces and net shall continue to be two of the most fashionable fabrics for Fall and Winter. Illustrating this advertisement are two models—modified copies of imported garments—and both of them extremely chic. One blouse is made of Embroidered Madras Lace. A very fashionable model, designed with front and back yoke in the new long shoulder and sleeve. Neck and sleeves finished with net frill. Open front, closing with crocheted button in a linked effect. This also is only one of a number of models on sale, specially priced at $1. The other blouse is made of shadow lace, also of net over a foundation of net; trimmed across bodice, back and shoulders with light blue and flesh-colored silks. Further elaborations include a Van Dyke embroidered net frill and collar, long sleeves, finished at hand with $1.98 net frill to match. Special price. The Charming Net and Lace Blouses offer a wide range of choice and must be seen for you to fully appreciate their individuality and smartness; all are exceptional value at this special sale price. $2.98
